Position Description:

The NUFP intern will be provided opportunities to work and engage with a variety of functional units within the Center for Health Education and Wellness department. The intern will work with various initiatives and processes designed to support the educational mission and goals of the VOLS 2 VOLS peer education program. The VOLS 2 VOLS are undergraduate students who are passionate about creating a healthier Volunteer community. They educate their fellow students about health and wellness. The peers are trained to provide programs and host events throughout the year around the following focus areas:

- Healthy relationships and consent
- Sexual Health Promotion
- Alcohol and Other Drug Education
- General Wellness (e.g. nutrition, sleep, stress)

As a CHEW NUFP Intern you will:

- Improve your leadership and communication skills
- Gain experience in program planning and presentation
- Increase your knowledge about a range of health topics
- Make a difference in the health of UT students
- Enhance your resume
